

Love Music Hate Racism is a national campaign that brings people together through music to oppose racism.

Racists like the BNP have conned some people into supporting them, but they can be stopped.

In fact, they have to be stopped because the BNP's new-found suits and smiles disguise some ugly politics.

They stand for division and racial violence, and ultimately the politics of Hitler's Holocaust and a desire for "ethnic cleansing" to produce an all-white Britain.

The BNP now have 57 local councillors and a London Assembly Member, making the campaign more vital than ever.

LMHR believes our music unites us and gives us strength, and offers a vibrant >>> celebration of our multicultural and multiracial society.

Over 100,000 people came to the LMHR Carnival in London's Victoria Park in April 2008 to hear top musicians from every genre of music – along with speeches from leading campaigners and trade unionists. We have organised other massive events involving the likes of Hard Fi, Jay Sean, Lethal Bizzle, Babyshambles, Roll Deep, Akala and The View. Just as important are the small gigs people have put on up and down the country with up-and-coming bands, DJs and MCs. We are now organising events in all the areas where the BNP have recently won council seats including gigs in London, Stoke, Coventry and Rotherham.

LMHR works from the grassroots up, we have local groups all round the country, so join us today in saying no to racism and fascism.

- Become a member of LMHR. Complete and return the membership form on this leaflet.
- Become a promoter and put on a LMHR benefit night! It's fun and a great way to get the message across – see our website for ideas on getting started
- Spread the word – run a stall at a local gig or event, or just hand out some flyers in the queue
- Link to www.lovemusichateracism.com from your website or myspace
- Say it loud – buy and wear an LMHR t-shirt or badge
- Help us to print flyers and stage events – make a donation by post or through our website
