Love Music Hate Racism carnival

"Love Music Hate Racism Carnival 2008 – Rock Against Racism 30th Anniversary" promises to be LMHR's biggest event yet. It celebrates 30 years since the famous Rock Against Racism carnival, which also took place in the Victoria Park and was played by The Clash, Steel Pulse and other legends.

Our carnival will see all kinds of musicians uniting against racism and fascism – creating a diverse and vibrant mix of music. There will be a lively carnival procession through London beforehand.

Unlike the majority of music festivals today LMHR Carnival is not a huge corporate event . This carnival belongs to you. To put on an event like this costs a huge amount of money. We are asking you to give as generously as possible to support what will be an historic event that celebrates our multicultural and multiracial society. We look forward to seeing you all in Viccy Park.

We the undersigned love music and hate racism and support the LMHR Carnival 2008
